Messiah

Comes From The House
Of Judah

By

Pastor Eli James

Migrations Of Israel – Chapter 5

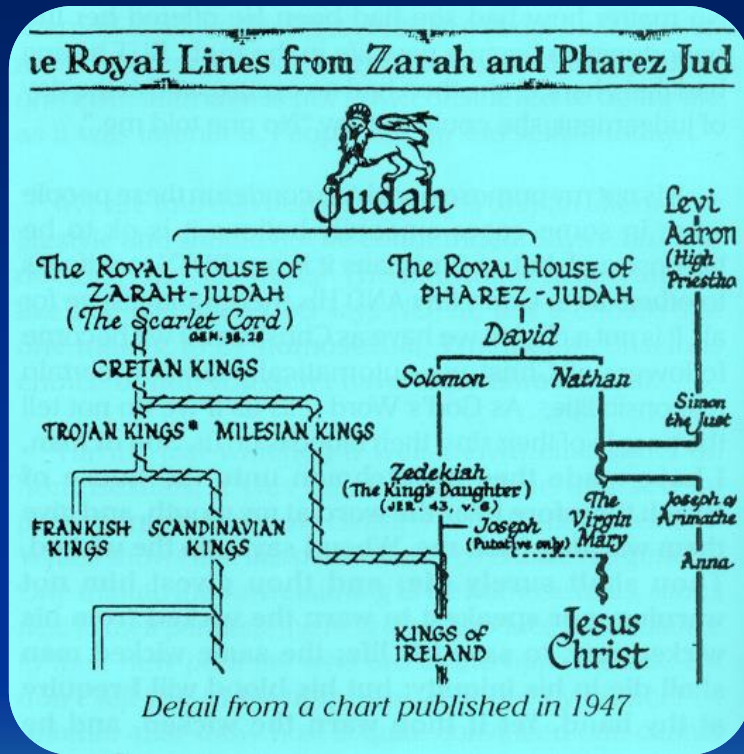

While the House of Israel was wandering through Europe and setting up the European nation states, a small portion of the House of Judah remained in Palestine in order to bring forth the Messiah. These were the 42,000 Judahites, Benjamites and Levites who returned from the Babylonian captivity.

“And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots.” - Isa. 11:1.

Migrations Of Israel – Chapter 5

Jesse was David's father (Ruth 4:22; Matt. 1:6). Isaiah is telling us that there will be a “Branch” of the Family Tree, stemming from Jesse, that will result in the Messiah.

Migrations Of Israel – Chapter 5

This is the Royal House of David, descendants of Judah. The House of Judah was to remain in Judea and Palestine until the First Advent.

Migrations Of Israel – Chapter 5

The reason why none of the prophecies made to ancient Israel have been fulfilled by the Jewish people is because the Jews are not Israelites. Nor is Judaism the religion of the Old Testament.

Migrations Of Israel – Chapter 5

Judaism is, in reality, the teachings of the Talmud, which are based on the opinions of the rabbis, not on the Law of Moses. (Deut. 4:1-2 forbids all priests from tampering with the written Law of Moses; but the rabbis have always substituted their “Oral tradition” for the Law of Moses.)

Ashkenazi Khazar Jews

Therefore, the Jewish people cannot possibly be either Israel or Judah, because their religion constantly violates the Law of Moses and because they are not a truly Shemitic people. 95% of modern Jews are, in fact, Ashkenazi Khazars, who CONVERTED to Judaism in the 8th Century AD.

Migrations Of Israel – Chapter 5

None of their Ashkenazi ancestors have any Israelite or Shemitic blood. The other 5% of modern Jewry consists of the Sephardic type, who are not Shemites either.

As explained earlier, the scribes and Pharisees, whom Jesus repeatedly condemned in all four Gospels, were of Idumean heritage. Neither the Ashkenazim nor the Sephardim are true Israelites.

Migrations Of Israel – Chapter 5

This means that Judaism and Jewry are total impostors, who have laid a false claim to the heritage of Israel and Judah, as is stated in Rev. 2:9, 3:9 and 12:9.

Migrations Of Israel – Chapter 5

Speaking to Israel in Rev. 2:9, Jesus, through the Apostle John, tells us:

I know your tribulation and your poverty (but you are rich) and the slander of those who say they are Jews [Judeans] and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.”

Migrations Of Israel – Chapter 5

Psalms 50:16 and 17 offer an interesting foresight into this development: "But unto the wicked God saith, What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldst take my covenant in thy mouth? Seeing thou hatest instruction, and castest my words behind thee."

This means that a nation of hypocrites will declare themselves to be “His people,” but they will actually be liars and deceivers! Of course, this statement is also true of the disobedient Israelites; but it is even more true of the wicked nation that is pretending to be Israel!

Jesus would have become the King of Judah had not the Jews crucified Him.

And the Jews DID crucify Him, just as the Bible teaches. Read John 7:1, if you don't believe me.

“Jesus would not walk in Jewry, because the Jews sought to kill him.”

Migrations Of Israel – Chapter 5

This is confirmed in John 5. Speaking to the Pharisees, the originators of the religion called Judaism, Jesus says:

Migrations Of Israel – Chapter 5

Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuses you, EVEN MOSES, in whom you hope. For had you believed Moses, you would have believed Me. But if you believe not his writings, how shall you believe My words?" - John 5:40-47.

The Trial Of Christ

This is clearly what the hand washing ceremony meant. It was an official rite that Pilate borrowed from local tradition, which meant that neither Pilate nor Rome was to be responsible for any of the events that followed.

Then Pontius Pilate turned Jesus over to the Pharisees, who were the Edomite Jews of Judea. It was these Jews who illegally tried, convicted and executed Jesus Christ, not the Romans.

Migrations Of Israel – Chapter 5

The Jews are NOT Israelites or Judahites

The confusion about the Biblical use of the word, Jew, comes from the fact that it is translated from the Greek word Ioudaios, which means JUDEAN. But there were two types of Judeans in those days:

Migrations Of Israel – Chapter 5

Migrations Of Israel – Chapter 5

Yahshua did not come to redeem the world. The world still hates Him, even today. He came to redeem His People, Israel, so that we could build His Kingdom here on earth, in spite of all of Satan's minions, ...

Migrations Of Israel – Chapter 5

.... who ferociously battle against having this Kingdom become a reality on planet earth. If you are paying attention, you can see that this battle is heating up to a fever pitch in the early part of this Twenty-First Century.

Migrations Of Israel – Chapter 5

Unfortunately, the mainstream Judeo-Christians have actually joined with the enemies of Christ by siding with the Jews. Paul's prophecy of the Great Apostasy in II Thess. 2 has been fully realized in modern Churchianity!

Migrations Of Israel – Chapter 5

The Lamb and the Lion

We can never forget that Yahshua's ministry requires TWO ADVENTS. The First Advent was to redeem Israel by forgiving our past sins. At that time, He came as the sacrificial lamb.

Migrations Of Israel – Chapter 5

The Second Advent will be to establish the never-ending Kingdom. And this will be accomplished for His People, True Israel, the Anglo-Saxon, Celtic and Caucasian people.

No one else stands to inherit the Kingdom! Yahweh God has told us that He has prepared us for this Kingdom even before the world was created! This is the true meaning of the doctrine of Predestination, as explained by Paul in Romans 8:29-30 and Ephesians 1:5,11.

Migrations Of Israel – Chapter 5

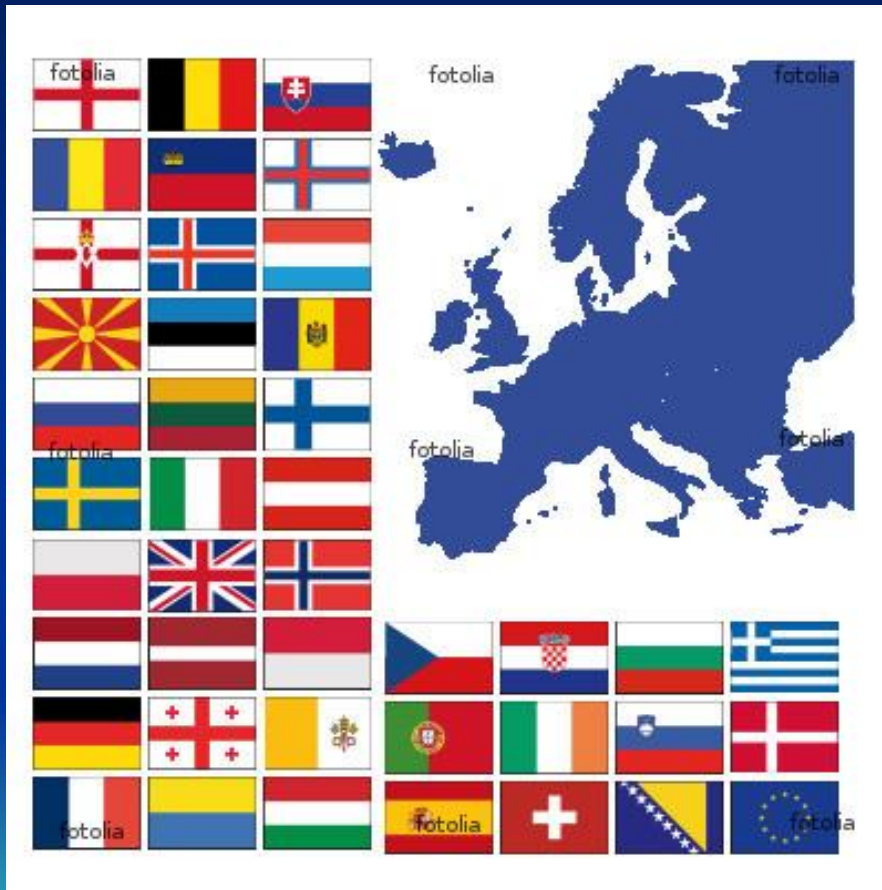

At the First Advent, He was Shiloh, the Messiah and Lamb of God. At the Second Advent, we will call Him the Lion of Judah, when He will take His place as King of Kings.

Migrations Of Israel – Chapter 5

He never achieved that last time, did He? He was crucified; and the Jews mocked him by putting a sign on His Cross, which said “King of the Judeans.” This time, He will come with vengeance for His enemies; and He will rule with a “rod of iron.” There won’t be any law-breaking anymore!

Migrations Of Israel – Chapter 5

Meanwhile, back in Europe, the Israelites of the Dispersion were becoming a vast multitude of people. Because of hundreds of years of wandering, they eventually forgot who they were and were called by other names!!!
